

The research project should include:

1. Project title. Your title should clearly indicate what your proposed research is about.
2. Background and Rationale
3. Aims and objectives.
4. Research Design and Methodology.
5. Bibliography

They are typically between 1,000 and 1,500 words. Your PhD research proposal must passionately articulate what you want to research and why, convey your understanding of existing literature, and clearly define at least one research question that could lead to new or original knowledge and how you propose to answer it. The topic of the projects can be selected among the research area of the scientific board of the PhD school.
